Am Nkunda aime stiven

i am the owner of this web page steven nkunda was studed at Inyange primary school he was continue to study in nyanza secondary school then he gone to UR university of rwanda nkunda stated study at 2005 he took long time to finish there primary school because i was sick more time then when i come back to school other student can be made an explanation to me but it is so much notes i was have to study that time that can cause to fail in class.in adivanced level i was work hard in order to be in the same line for other then i was parfom well exam and quize in oldinaly level i made more different than before becauce i am the first one in class that can gives me the chance to be study in university of Rwanda where i am studing information techinology
